Cyber Bullying
Bullying which is carried out through an Internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group or instant messaging. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as short messaging service (SMS).

Examples of cyber bullying
- Teasing and being made fun of
- Spreading of rumours online
- Sending unwanted messages
- Defamation

Anyone can be bullied online and the bully can act anonymously if he or she desires. People can also be bullied online by groups of people such as class groups or collective members of an online community.

What to do if you feel that you are being bullied
You should share your concerns with your parents but make sure you report the incident(s) to someone in the school community.

Identify an adult in the school community who you are comfortable sharing your concerns with.

Facebook Facts
1. Registration and Account Security
2. You are NOT permitted to have a Facebook Account if you are Under 13 years.

If you are cyber bullied...........
- Don’t respond to the message or image
- Save the evidence
- Block and delete the sender
- Report the situation to the website or Internet Service Provider
- Tell trusted people – friends, adults, teachers, parents and police if necessary

You can help?
Remember cyber bullying hurts and it should not be part of anyone’s growing up.

If it is happening to you, tell someone. If you need to know more, or you need to speak to someone there are always people who can help.
If you received a PARENT OPINION SURVEY via mail PLEASE RETURN it by tomorrow as we need to mail them to the Independent Contractor for collation.

Last Monday Nathan Brill came to our school assembly and presented the school with a plaque engraved ‘In Appreciation For Your Continued Support Of Nathan Brill In His Athletic Achievements’. He also presented four of our students with a souvenir jacket as the highest money raisers in our recent Walkathon. Nathan represented Australia in the Ukraine in July. He competed at the IAAF World Youth Championships in the 10,000m walk where he was placed 5th.

"RACV Tootstars Fundraiser- Monday Morning Tea".

Presentation from Angie Wilcock

Angie is a highly regarded Australian expert and speaker on transitions in education. She has appeared on TV (Morning with Kerrie-Anne and the Today Show) and radio. She works with parents, students, and teachers Australia-wide on coping with the changes in high school. She is a published author with a strong background in teaching, as well as being a mum of two sons. Her sessions are a mix of humour, anecdotes, information, real-life parenting...but above all, strategies to support families during this very critical phase of education and personal development. Her new book, 'The Transition Tightrope,' supports parents in understanding this new phase of education...and life.
