Students of the Week

Prep B - Mrs Prossor – Molly Clarke – for the great effort she is making to remember to take turns during oral language activities.

Prep R - Mrs. Read – Tayla Eldridge – for the great effort you put into your fruit project. Well Done!

1H - Mrs Hughes – Marshall Symons – for the fantastic effort he has put into learning his spelling words, and the improvement he has shown in his reading and writing. Congratulations Marshall.

1P - Miss Perkins - Angela Krtalic – for her continuous enthusiasm and positive working attitude towards all learning tasks. Her writing in particular is improving from week to week as she up levels her work by adding and changing words during editing time. Well Done Angela!

2B – Mrs Baird – Jordan Carver – for his animated news story and his enthusiasm for all school activities.

2J – Mrs Johnstone – Shelby McCormack – for working so hard to achieve her reading goals. You gave me goosebumps listening to you read!

3A – Miss Arnold – For all 3A – what a great time we had on camp! You used your manners and your behaviour was fantastic. Most of you gave everything a go.

3W – Ms Walton – All 3W for their fantastic behaviour on Briars Camp. Every child had an amazing experience trying new activities.

4S – Miss Staley + Miss McGhee – Brodie Nancarrow- Stewart and Ben Carroll - for being happy campers who supported each other through sickness and challenges. They showed loyalty and mateship and even finished off the camp with a brave red faces skit. Well done boys!

5Q – Miss Quintin – You’ve been such a help with the HPV presentation boards Kayley Hazendonk. They’re looking very professional because you took your time and used your annotative. We’re lucky to have you in the team! Thanks for all your help.

6W - Miss Withers – Sophie Holliss – for her hard work and effort she displayed at the Rugby. Well done Sophie, what a super-star you are.

Art / Craft – Miss Davey –

Music - Mrs Young – Alicia McGrath – 1P – for working hard on learning everything you need to learn for the concert. You have done very well to catch up. Well done!

Phys Ed – Mr Kitchin – Tom Connelly – 6W – for his hard work, fair play and outstanding effort at the Rugby Gala Day.
