A short assembly will be held in the Bendigo Bank Hall just prior to dismissal, beginning at approximately 2:00pm where our 'Students of the Term' will be presented with their certificates.

FOOTY + LUNCH DAY THANKS

We thank Mr Cappadonna who took charge of the Footy Day Celebrations. The detail for each team in 2016 was sensational. The launch of the Mars team will be an interesting development for 2017. Watch this space!

On behalf of all of the students who enjoyed a yummy Footy Day lunch, I would like to sincerely thank Sarah Boardman, Peta + Phillip Ross, Kelly Driver, Julie Woulfe, Amanda Reeve and a fantastic group of parent helpers who ensured that all of the hot pies were distributed in an efficient and timely manner!

Prep Excursion to Moonlit Sanctuary Monday 3rd October.

To celebrate and consolidate our learning throughout Term 3 on our place in Australia and Australian native animals, we have planned an excursion to the Moonlit Sanctuary.

We will experience close encounters with mammals, birds and reptiles through two education programs:

*Mammal Mingle: Meet a range of mammals including dingoes, Tasmanian devils, wombats and koalas. We will learn about the broader needs and features of these animals.

*Bush food explorers: We will touch and smell a range of plants and learn how aboriginals used them and other tools from nature.

I was very proud of all the children's artwork, they really worked diligently to create their best piece. Many gave up their lunchtimes, making sure they presented their very best efforts. Thankyou to all the children who helped set up. I would like to thank all the staff at Tootgarook and a special mention to Miss Davey and Mrs Young whose touch made the event successful and special.

Thankyou also to the many parents for their kind donation purchasing their child's piece of Art for the purchase of Art prizes.

The instrumental learners of Tootgarook P.S. did themselves, their parents/guardians and their tutors very proud at the Art and Cultural Festival 2015.

To our tutors, Lyn (drums), Trish (flute, clarinet and saxophone), Sophie (violin), Christine (Piano and singing) and Roman (guitar) for donating their time and doing a wonderful job with our students each week. To our year six students, thank you for presenting the Art and Cultural Festival to our community, great job!
