Parents are reminded to please ring the school if your child is going to be absent from school – thank you!

Student of the Week

Students will be presented with certificates at next Thursday afternoon's assembly.

Prep P – Mrs Perkin -

Prep S – Mrs Read - Michael Aldridge - For your interesting and informative show and tell this week. You are very knowledgeable about eels and you were able to share your knowledge with your classmates. You have also reached 75 nights reading and I am impressed by your efforts. Well done!

1A – Miss Arnold – Tyler Coburn- Tyler has been trying to remember to ask teachers or friends for help during learning times. Tyler is a happy participant in interactive whiteboard games and uses the words before and after to locate a number on the hundreds chart.

1P – Miss Perkins -- Cheye Penzo- For sharing her wonderful diary writing about her trip to Phillip Island with her teachers this week. Cheye is adding extra details to her sentences and her handwriting is neat.

2L - Ms Gibson – Connor Clarke – Connor has made a fantastic start to term 2, he has been taking part in more group activities in the classroom. Connor is always polite and respectful and he has worked hard with Mel! Well Done Connor!

3H – Mrs Houston – Delta Cahill – for always displaying the RICH school Values and presenting her work to a high standard.

3WB – Ms Walton & Mrs Bos – Asia Scollo – for your amazing effort in all areas of learning and always demonstrating the RICH School Values.

4H - Ms Hone – Daizy Grinter- For her mature approach to learning. Daizy is respected and admired by her peers as she always demonstrates a responsible and caring attitude. Well done Daizy. Keep being your beautiful self!

4P – Miss Pittard - Tye Seath - For your positive attitude towards learning this term. You have made an excellent start to Term 2 and have enthusiastically embraced learning opportunities in all subjects. Your engagement with our ANZAC lessons was commendable. Thankyou for being a star this week! Keep up the great work Tye!

5/6H – Mrs Haddad -

5/6 K – Mr Kitchin – Well Done Mia Goldberg – you represented Tootgarook Primary School with pride. It is so good to see our leaders being active within the local community. I hope you enjoyed your role in the dawn service and presenting the wreath.

5/6M – Miss McGhee - Well Done Jarvis Swaby - you represented Tootgarook Primary School with pride. It is so good to see our leaders being active within the local community. I hope you enjoyed your role in the dawn service and presenting the wreath.

Art / Craft – Miss Davey –

Music - Mrs Young- Katelyn Lizio – 5/6K – Your involvement in all the Music Program has to offer is impressive. You play the clarinet, always participate with enthusiasm in lessons, are a member of the Victorian State Schools Spectacular group and you are a great role model as our Band Captain. Well Done Katelyn!

P.E. – Mrs Burns - Thanks for all your help Eloise Read! You've been assisting me with the sports equipment before, during and after school all week.

Indonesian- Mrs Clements – Well done Dakota White, you are always focused in Indonesian and your written work is of an extremely high standard.
